LATIN CLUB TO PLAY IN NORTHAMPTON

Will Present "Mostellaria" at Smith Soon—Attempt Receives Much Favorable Comment

DATE MAY 14TH

The New England performance of the "Mostellaria", which the Latin Club is presenting this spring, will be given at Smith College on the evening of May 14th, according to a recent announcement by Dr. Chase. The local performance will be given on the following Friday evening.

The New England trip is an experiment for the Latin Club. Although the Club has kept to its tradition of presenting one play every three years, it has never attempted to make a "road" trip. As soon as it was announced that the "Mostellaria" was to be presented this spring, Dr. Chase received several requests to present the play out of town; as it was not possible to give more than one performance away from the Hill, the Smith offer was accepted.

Great interest is being shown at Smith over the presentation and according to reports, it seems likely that the entire Students' Building will be sold out. Large delegations will attend from Amherst and Mount Holyoke. Many professors from the classical departments of the New England college have signified their intention of attending. The current issue of The Classical Weekly, one of the foremost classical journals in the country, carries a leading announcement of the Hamilton presentation. Prof. Willard W. Thorp, '20, of the English Department, and the Department of Latin at Smith are sponsoring the trip.

The Hamilton performance will be

UNION HAS SLIGHT EDGE ON BUFF AND BLUE TEAM

First Contest with Garnet Promises to Be Hard Tussle

When the Union College baseball team meets the Buff and Blue nine here next Saturday, it will enjoy the advantage of having played three games to Hamilton's two. The Garnet started the season on April 19th by losing to the strong Trinity College nine 8-6. On April 26th, the State College for Teachers bowed to Union 18-2. The game scheduled with Amherst for the following Saturday was called on account of rain. And today Coach Oliphant's men will meet Trinity for the second time. Captain Schults' team will play its first trip game with the University of Rochester next Wednesday.

Union has been fortunate in securing the services of "Chief" Bender, professional baseball player, coach and representative of the Winchester Arms Co. He spent several days in Schenectady, rounding the team into shape by showing the pitchers how to improve their deliveries, developing the sluggers and showing the fielders a few tricks. The Middlebury and Williams squads have also had the benefit of his teaching.

The Union line-up will probably be: Heidorf ss; Nitchman rf; Cornell 3b; Ripton 2b; Dean 1b; Makofski cf; Meyer rf; Mattern c; Feinburg p.

ST. LAWRENCE MEET TO BE HARD BATTLE

Laurentians Have Best Team in Years —Buff and Blue Strong in Track But Weak in Field Events

The track meet with St. Lawrence gives promise of being the keenest competition in which Hamilton and the Scarlet have engaged in a number of years. St. Lawrence is stronger than it has been in previous years and in general looks better in the field events than Hamilton. However, the Buff and Blue has the edge on its opponents in the running events, and will probably make its counts on the track.

Coach Donald Howe of St. Lawrence, with twenty-five men, arrived and stayed in Utica Friday night and came on the Hill Saturday morning. The team has a large number of veterans. Captain Milton Loysson, who has been the regular high and broad jumper for the last three years, last summer at a meet in Rochester jumped close to 6 feet in the high jump and is now making about 22 feet in the broad. In last year's meet with St. Lawrence, Loysson jumped 20 feet, 5 inches, thus gaining first place in the broad.

In the low hurdles, Murphy, Morgan, and Flynn will run. These men took first place here last year. Murphy has placed for two years in the Eastern Intercollegiate track meet in Springfield. In the dashes Finnegan, Murphy and Wilson will be the stars for St. Lawrence. Finnegan and Wilson ran on the Bates College crack track team two years ago, and the year before Finnegan held the interscholastic record in the 100 yard dash for northern New York.

In the distance running, Yerdon, who will run the quarter mile, is their best man. It is his third year in the event, and he does it in about 50 seconds. Caswell will run the half, but indications are that "Tommy" will find little difficulty in trimming him. Harrington, Middleton, and Friedman will do the long distance running in the mile and two mile, but Hamilton is considered the stronger.

St. Lawrence has three good men in the pole vault in Cooke, Morgan and Wilson. All do better than 11 feet. Last year Fletcher of St. Lawrence won the event at a height of 10 feet, 6 inches. Cooke and Warren were tied for second place.

Sullivan, Paige, and Quigley are the weight men, and Paige was last year's interscholastic hammer-throw champion for northern New York. Sullivan is strong in the shot-put. He was with Dartmouth last year in the event. It is reported that he puts the shot about 40 feet.

For Hamilton, Capt. Thompson will run the mile and the half mile. Yates, Clark and Richards will do the two mile, and A. Alison, the anchor man on the relay team which was first in the Penn Relay, will run the 220. A number of promising freshmen are out for the dashes. Rogers, DeLalla, Potoski, Becker and Snyder will probably be participants.

LAFAYETTE TAKES FIRST GAME

Buff and Blue Drops Game to More Experienced Eastern Team—Warren Pitches Well—Morris Gets Home Run

SCORE 7 TO 5

On Friday afternoon the Hamilton baseball team opened the local season against the strong Lafayette nine on the home diamond. The Lafayette team was the more experienced and their superior team work proved the undoing of the Buff and Blue.

Hamilton showed up exceedingly well considering that it was the first game of the season. At times the Buff and Blue playing was in mid-season form, but at other times the playing was rather careless and loose.

Warren pitched an excellent game for Hamilton and with a little better support would have turned the tables on Lafayette. He accounted for 14 strike-outs and accounted for a couple of hits. Red Morris distinguished himself by pounding out the first home-run of the season over the right field fence.

Neither team scored in the first frame. Not until Hamilton was up at bat in the last of the second inning did the fun begin. In this period Schults and Morris scored for the Buff and Blue on sacrifice hits.

The beginning of the next frame saw the start of the Lafayette scoring. Carl walked the first man, and then allowed two singles, which accounted for two runs.

The fourth spelled disaster for Hamilton. A couple of passes and a single with a circuit clout brought four more runs in for Lafayette.

After this inning Warren tightened up and pitched almost air-tight ball for the rest of the game . Lafayette scored again in the fifth and after that was unable to tally again.

In the sixth inning Hmilton had an excellent chance at winning the game. The Lafayette twirler eased up a bit and the Hamilton team started to clout the ball. With two out Schults walked, and Pottle followed him with a neat single. Morris followed him and made first on an error. Art Hunter, the next man up, with three balls and two strikes, received a pass, forcing in another tally for Hamilton. Warren followed, but was unable to make connections, and struck out.

In the eighth Hamilton staged another little rally and garnered two more runs with Pottle's single and Morris' homer. In this frame Lafay-

FRESHMAN FROLIC PROVES SUCCESSFUL

Saturday afternoon after the St. Lawrence track meet, the annual Freshman Frolic was held at the Psi U House. Excellent dance music was furnished by the Colgate Five, and some very appetizing refreshments that were served during the latter part of the afternoon combined to make the Frolic a pleasant and enjoyable entertainment. Plans and arrangements for it were made by a committee composed of William Ogden, chairman, Jack Chase, and George Stanley. The patronesses were Mrs. F. C. Ferry, Mrs. C. K. Chase, Mrs. Robert Rudd, and Mrs Edward Root.

"Lit" and the Hamiltonian.

There has been much discussion in college of late concerning the two dead weights on the list of Hamilton publications, namely, the Hamilton Literary Magazine, and the Hamiltonian. These two publications have been staggering along for several years past, just barely able to make both ends meet, if at all, and absolutely disrupting the advertising field in the nearby vicinity.

The time is now ripe for a change. Either one or the other of the publications must have to cease to function. If the Hamiltonian is done away with, then there will be a howl about another one of the grand and glorious customs going to the dogs. If the Lit is abolished, then those men in college who like to see their budding attempts at achievement will put in a kick. Also some of the alumni would not like to be deprived of their copies of Lit. However it may be, these publications cannot exist on advertising alone, as they have been trying to do in the past, because the Utica field is being exhausted to the point of absolute refusal to advertise on the Hill.

There is no question but what a junior class would be only too willing to forego the ordeal of putting out the Hamiltonian. Of course there is a sentimental attachment to every year book, but unfortunately sentiment does not pay printers' and engravers' bills.

The practical solution to the question would be to combine Hamiltonian and Lit and make it a quarterly. This quarterly could contain all the information carried in the year book and it would be much newer material. It could also incorporate the features that are best liked in Lit. A real live quarterly would be much better than a white elephant, like the Hamiltonian, and a glorified pamphlet, like Lit.

The College Store.

Few of the students here on the Hill realize the immense advantage of having a college store. Thanks to the efforts of several foresighted friends of the college, the necessary money was procured last year to buy the equipment necessary to operate a first class College Store.

The purpose of the store is not to make money out of the men in college for private purposes, but to give the students in college the different things that they need. Any profit that is made above the actual running expenses of the store goes into the treasury of the Association for Undergraduate Activities, and is applied directly to the funds needed for the different teams. Thus we see that the store is really on a cooperative basis, and it is to the interest of everyone in college to support it the best that they can.

Oftentimes men will go to Clinton, and even to Utica, to buy supplies or articles of clothing that they can just as well purchase in the college store. The college store cannot be expected to have a complete supply of everything on hand, but it does have a lot of clothing and haberdashery that are at the same time of excellent quality, and not expensive.

Let us give the store the patronage that it deserves.

TRUSTEES HOLD SPRING MEETING

Much Business Accomplished—Pass Resoluions—New Scholarships Announced

DR. ERSKINE RE-APPOINTED

The Board of Trustees of Hamilton College held their annual spring meeting Monday morning, April 30, in Truax Hall. Hon. Elihu Root, chairman of the Board, presided over the session. Robert D. Fraser of Utica was elected clerk of the Board to succeed the late George Dunham, and was appointed member of the executive committee to fill his place. Aside from the routine business transacted at the meeting, much of special interest was considered by the Board.

Professor Archibald M. Erskine, who has occupied the place of Dean Saunders this year in his absence, has been appointed a regular professor of chemistry. Prof. Erskine will relieve the Dean from some of his duties in the Chemistry Department and enable Dean Saunders to devote more time to his duties as Dean.

Professor Joseph D. Ibbotson, librarian of the college, has been given leave of absence from his duties for the summer. He is planning a European tour.

The Board voted that the college identify itself with those colleges in this country who are supporting the American School of Classical Studies at Athens.

The gift of an alcove of 1,000 books presented to the college by Frank S. Lord and his sister, as a memorial to Charles H. Lord, who was at one time a member of the class of 1853, was gratefully accepted.

A new prize award, offered to Hamilton College by the Society of Colonial Wars, was accepted. The prize of $100 annually for three years will be given the member of the senior class who writes the best essay on some phase of colonial history. Similar prizes have been established at Ho-

IT was the first question in the course on Shaving—"Why is the handy cap not a handicap?" and the student replied, "Because it can't get lost."

He referred, of course, to the Williams' Hinged Cap which you see pictured here. This invention puts an end for all time to the nuisance of hunting for lost caps. As you see, the Williams' cap is hinged on. It's the only college cap that you can't lose.

Carpe Diem

To make this column realistic, Carpe has turned dramatist. Read, please, the touching dialogue printed below, a drama entitled "Feminine Foibles" or,

"Some girls are thin and some girls are fat;
My girl's a bird, but your girl's a cat."

The scene is any bedroom in any fraternity house at about 3 a. m. Saturday morning. The occupants of the room are Your Girl and Carpe's Girl. Your Girl's one of those who—when she prepares herself for a party—"never leaves off tomorrow what she can leave off today." Just now she's taking off for the night her self-made face. Carpe's Girl's having a hard time to keep up with the loose and fast chatter of Your Girl.

C. G. "Do you believe that awful story they tell about that poor girl from Syracuse?"

Y. G. "Of course I do. What is it?"

C. G.: "Why, Charlie Brainard asked if he could kiss her and she said, 'Isn't that just like a man! Trying to put all the responsibility on a woman!' "

Y. G.: "That's nothing. I told Dick Wood that he mustn't kiss me any more and he said, 'No more, but just as much?' "

C. G.: "Oh! Goodness! I swear I've never been kissed."

Y. G.: "That's enough to make anyone swear. Here you are up at a Hamilton house party. If you can't get someone in Hamilton to kiss you, I pity you. Hamilton men are noted far and wide as beind the easiest to please."

C. G.: "If I were a man I'd like to go to Hamilton. They certainly have a beautiful view from the top of the Hill."

Y. G.: "Yes, and such a hill! I was up here at Prom, and this place was just one sheet of ice all over."

C. G.: "Funny that water should freeze with the slippery side up!" (Score one for Carpe's girl!)

Y. G.: "Say, did you see the powder on your man's lapel? I asked him whose powder it was and he said, 'Mary Garden's'. Nice man you have!"

C. G.: "Well, I don't know about that. Your partner had powder on his coat . He had just been out with a girl from Wells. I said "Did you kiss her?' and he said 'Yes'. "

Y. G.: "That wins the angleworm's galoshes! Did he really? I didn't think he had the nerve."

And so this chatter continues till the chaperone taps on the door and questions: "Is any one ill in here? Can't I give you some help?" and the lights are finally turned out.

The reason why the Sigs didn't have house party this spring was because the D. U.'s borrowed all the spare tuxedos around college.

The usual number of old standbys were present at this house party. No slam intended. Carpe was glad to see some of the old familiar faces again. It makes it seem like old times.

It did seem good to see the faculty up so bright and early the other morning and all in Chapel.

We hope no one tried to visit the Faculty Club the other night. They weren't able to swing a party this spring.

bart, St. Lawrence, Colgate, and Union.

On the motion of Dr. Stryker, the following resolutions were adopted:

This board sadly records that since its last session, two of its members have been removed by death. They have gone from this room for the last time. Their vacant chairs are vocal and admonish each of us that his tenure of earthly duty is short at the longest.

As longest in this service, we name first George Earl Dunham, born April 5, 1859, who graduated from Hamilton in 1879 and who, since 1889, was an honored and ever faithful member of this board and since 1912 its clerk. He was long time one of the standing executive committee and was the diligent and effective chairman of the committee on college growth. As the editor of the Utica Press he did much in its columns to record the activities and extend the public appreciation of the college. He was wise in counsel and unceasing in diligent loyalty. We who survive him will ever remember his genial and lovable fellowship. He died after a brief illness on the 29th of October, 1922. Utica made general mourning over the loss of this elect citizen. It becomes us to make grateful note of Mr. Dunham's generous remembrance of the college in his will.

The Hon. Charlemagne Tower, a graduate of Harvard in the class of 1872, was born April 17, 1848, and became a member of this board in 1919. He can come no more. On February 24th, 1923, he died. Indeed we shall miss his dignified and courteous presence.

Charlemagne Tower was a lawyer and railroad president. Four years of travel and study in Europe prepared him for diplomatic service, upon which he entered as attache of the United States Legation to Madrid, 1873-5. In 1897 he went to Vienna as minister plenipotentiary. In 1899 he held a similar office at St. Petersburg (now Petrograd). From 1902 to 1908, he was United States ambassador to Germany. He was made grand officer of the French Legion of Honor. He had degrees of LL.D. from Lafayette, Glasgow, Chicago, St. Andrews, and Hamilton. He was made president in 1917 of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania. He wrote variously and his "Marquis de Lafayette in the American Revolution" (1895) is a standard work.

Hamilton College is honored in having the name of this distinguished gentleman upon the roll of its councillors and governors.

Let these memoranda of our high regard go to the minutes of the board and copies be sent to the respective households of these our departed friends."

Those present were: Hon. Elihu Root, Clinton; Rev. M. W. Stryker, Rome; Henry H. Benedict, New York; Charles B. Rogers, Utica; Benjamin W. Arnold, Albany; Samuel F. Engs, Great Barrington, Mass.; Rev. Robert G. McGregor, New Rochelle; Reuben L. Maynard, New York; Joseph Rudd, Clinton; William M. Bristol, New York; Daniel Burke, New York; Dr. Frederick C. Ferry, Clinton; Robert W. Pomeroy, Buffalo; Edward S. Babcock, Utica; Dr. Arthur S. Hoyt, Auburn; Robert D. Fraser, Utica; Dr. James H. Glass, Utica; Rev. Darwin F. Pickard, Watertown; and Norman J. LATIN CLUB TO PLAY IN NORTHAMPTON

given on Friday evening, May 18, in the Gymnasium. In the past the play has been given during Commencement Week, but this year the date has been advanced so that the entire college body may attend. As usual, many out of town guests are expected. No admission will be charged.

The Smith trip will be made by automobile and in addition to the cast and Prof. Chase, Arnold Hall, '23, and Wallace Johnson, '15, will make the trip.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR SUB-FROSH DAY

Large Number of Prospective Students Expected Next Week-end—Results of Preliminary Speaking Contests Announced

From 75 to 100 sub-freshmen are expected to be in attendance at the annual Inter-Academic day to be held on Saturday May 12. Wallace Johnson, '15, field secretary for the college, and the Inter-Fraternity Council are in charge of this year's events, and are planning to offer an unusual program both for the evening of May 11, and for May 12.

Friday evening, May 11, there will be a college dinner in Commons at 6:30 for the sub-freshmen. All undergraduates are invited and urged to be present at this dinner. There will be no charge. The program for this dinner includes talks by three faculty members and three members of the undergraduate body. Music will be furnished by the Instrumental Club and the College Quartette will display some of the talent which was a feature of the Musical Clubs' program this season. There will also probably be a specialty act put on by some of the college comedy talent. Carlyle Yates, as president of the Senior Class, will preside.

On Saturday morning the annual interscholastic declamation contest will be held in the chapel. There will be ten speakers in this contest as follows: Albany District, Solomon Roodney of Kingston High School, first, and Rolland Snyder of Chatham High School, second; New York District, John Montardit of Hamilton Institute for Boys, first, and Alexander Taylor of Evander Childs High School, second; Syracuse District, Biagio Mavilio of Vocational High School, first, and Franklin Dillingham of the Ogdensburg Free Academy, second; The contests for the Batavia and Utica Districts have not been reported as yet.

In the afternoon there will be a baseball game between Hamilton and Union. A special feature will be shown in Commons Saturday evening.

—Philip Jessup, '18, and his wife, expect to sail for France in June to spend the summer. He is planning to spend considerable time in the study of French.

D. T. CLUB HOLDS SPRING TEA DANCE AND SHOW

The D. T. Sophomore Club entertained with a tea dance at the Delta Upsilon Lodge last Saturday afternoon. There was the annual extravaganza given by the neophytes, which greatly amused the gathering. Tige Jewett's famous six-piece orchestra of Cornell furnished excellent music for the dancing. The patronesses were Mrs. B. C. Hutchings, Utica; Mrs. E. C. J. Smith, Ogdensburg, and Mrs. N. C. Dale, College Hill.
